- Friday July 3rd - 5pm cookout and fireworks viewing; bring a dish - Beach Pavilion
- Sat. July 4th - community pavilion open to all no private rentals

Please help keep our community beach beautiful and safe for all to enjoy. Remember:

- Burning a bonfire directly on the sand is prohibited, partially burned logs and ash left in the sand cause a safety hazard.
- When using shared community items such as chairs and water toys, remember to clean up and store them properly for everyone's continued use and enjoyment.
- Do not leave fishing or crabbing lures, line, bait, and other paraphernalia discarded on the pier.
- All guest of CAP community members must be accompanied while using the beach.
- Trash and recycling bins are on site for community use, please be sure all garbage is properly deposited in the bin.
- Do not park in front of the boat ramp or any yellow curb.
- In compliance with the noise ordinance of Anne Arundel County, noise levels must be kept to an acceptable volume, quiet hours are from 10pm-7am. If you are non-compliant and reported you may be fined by the county.
